NUMBER 50

By JANE VOILES

As the eyes of America today are turned toward England, books on the contemporary English scene are beginning to come rapidly from the publishing houses. If you are interested in the way England is taking it, don't overlook Angela Thirkell's "Cheerfulness Breaks In," a novel which has captured the present spirit of England in a rather unusual way.

Angela Thirkell who is the granddaughter of the painter Burne-Jones and a cousin to Rudyard Kipling has written some five or six novels that have been well received in the United States. She writes with humor and perhaps a speck of malice about the people whom she knows, the group known as "the English gentry" who have for many years been living in settled comfort and stability.

Plot in the ordinary sense of the word has a minor place in Mrs. Thirkell's story, nothing happens yet everything happens. You attend a wedding—Mrs. Thirkell reverses the usual procedure and has a wedding in the first chapters instead of in the last—a sherry party, Red Cross meetings, a Christmas treat for evacuee children and a dinner at the deanery, but reflected in the social amenities of a little group of people you trace the pattern of life in England as it is being lived today. Blackouts are done every night, a communal kitchen is opened to feed the evacuees, and the hoards of little children from the cities bring new problems. Now they are breaking out with measles or impetigo, their crawl little heads refuse to conform to civilized standards and, in spite of frequent baths they continue "to smell like the Middle Ages."

If you have read others of Mrs. Thirkell's books, you will recognize old friends, though we hasten to add the parenthesis that you can thoroughly enjoy this book without having read its predecessors. Here is the exquisite little sparrow-wit Rose Birkett who after getting herself engaged eight times in the former book is married off for keeps in the first chapters.

The lovely Lavinia Barndon in characteristic fashion is opening her heart and her home to evacuee children. You will continue to like the downright Lydia for whom life holds no fine shades. Lydia is growing up and learning to shoulder the burdens of others but she still stops the circulation in the hands of friends for at least thirty seconds when she greets them.

Among the newcomers to Barsetshire are the Bissells. Mr. Bissell attributes the woes of the world to the "Capiteists" and Mrs. Bissell a psychology major who puts her knowledge to practical use remains unalterably placid in the face of any event. The Hampton-Bent ménage is somewhat startling. One of the ladies has achieved questionable fame having written "a Banned Book of the Month." They own a dog whose name changes to that of the man of the hour on the European horizon—he is Snidgy-Rydz when you meet him and Mannerheim when you leave him. The refugee Madame Brownscu notable for her hideously shaped legs and for her malicious tongue adds a barbaric touch to orderly village life.

This may all seem trifling in the face of danger yet it is the very essence of the way England is meeting her problem. To be sure a shadow is cast when there is mention of that little army that fought its way back from treachery and the story itself ends on a suspended note yet the sustaining mood is one of cheer. Its effect is tonic "like a

Snow Removal Hits Snag

Will U. S. 50 be open to travel over the Echo Summit this weekend? This is the answer given by the district Division of Highways maintenance office at Smith Flat:

"Friday morning, there was eight-tenths of a mile of snow separating the two plows, one working easterly and the other working westerly."

"Sometime during the morning, the plow on the east side ran into mechanical trouble. We do not know how long it may be before it is restored to service."

Although the office would not be committed on the subject, it seems possible, on the basis of reports, that the road may be open sometime Sunday, barring serious trouble.

SUCCESS CROWNS THREE-DAY COOKING SCHOOL; MODEL HOMES EXHIBIT

Total Attendance For Afternoon And Evening Meetings Approximately 1,200; Thursday Night Planning And Building Program Commended

Closing session of the Happy Kitchen Cooking School and Model Homes and Appliance Exhibit, which opened Wednesday at the Shakespeare club house, was held on Friday afternoon with Miss Nancy Baker conducting the final program before an audience of upward of three hundred of the county's homemakers.

Following the opening on Wednesday afternoon, the Happy Kitchen Cooking School met for its second session on Thursday afternoon, and in the evening there was a program devoted exclusively to home planning, building and furnishing.

While the afternoon meetings were essentially of interest to the ladies, the Thursday evening program attracted a large representation of men who took advantage of the opportunities afforded to discuss with building materials and home furnishings dealers some of the problems presented in planning and building a home.

In addition to the informal program, two motion pictures were screened. With the cooperation of the Pacific Gas & Electric Company, a picture "Building Sutter's Empire" was shown. Fred Sprague, of the Sacramento division offices of the power concern, was the projectionist and the company's projection equipment also was used for the showing of the picture, "Building a Home with Western Pines," which was applied by the Western Pine Association.

Including the three hundred who attended the closing program on Friday, the three-day special event had a total attendance of approximately twelve hundred homemakers and home planners and builders of the county.

The Happy Kitchen Cooking School and Model Homes Exhibit was brought to the community under the sponsorship of The Placerville Republican and The Mountain Democrat.

RECIPES USED IN SHOOOL

Following are some of the recipes used by Miss Nancy Baker in her demonstrations Thursday at the Happy Kitchen Cooking School:

Frozen Fruit Salad

1/4 cup sugar, 1/2 tsp salt, 1 1/2 tbsp Fisher Blend flour, 1 egg, 3-4 cup pineapple juice, 2 tbsp vinegar.

Blend sugar, salt and flour; add egg and mix well. Add pineapple juice and vinegar and mix until smooth. Cook over low heat until thick, cool and add: 1 cup cream, whipped, 3 bananas, mashed, 1/2 cup diced pineapple, 1 cup diced pears, 1/2 cup diced apricots, 1 doz maraschino cherries, sliced. Freeze in automatic refrigerator until solid. Slice and serve on crisp lettuce.

French Fried Deviled Eggs

Cut hard cooked eggs in half lengthwise. Wash yolks and season to taste. Refill whites with egg yolk mixture, fasten two halves together with toothpicks. Roll in sifted dry breadcrumbs, then in beaten egg and then in crumbs. Fry in deep Crisco heated to 375 to 380 degrees F. until a golden brown.

Funeral services will be held Saturday at 2 o'clock in Memory Chapel for James Gray, 40, of Rescue. The service will be conducted by a minister from Sacramento. Interment will be at Middletown cemetery.

Mr. Gray, formerly a baker in Sacramento, was found dead near his residence in the Rescue district on Wednesday, climaxing a search instituted by friends who had noticed several days before his apparent absence from home.

Coroner A. J. Orelli, who made an investigation, reported that it is unlikely a formal inquest will be called, since it appears that Mr. Gray, beyond question, died of natural causes.

The first draft took approximately 1600 youths, most of them volunteers, into the army from the Ninth Area.

The second draft, Jan 20 to Feb. 3, drew in 7722; the third, Feb. 17 to March 14, drew 17,700; and the fourth, which begins March 17 and runs to March 31, called for 10,000 men in the Ninth Area.

6 Teams Bowl Over 2,700 As 41st Tournament Opens

Eight Strikes In Succession Give Wisconsin High Game For Night With 267; Milwaukee Five Leads Scoring With 3-Game Total Of 2,787

ST. PAUL, Minn., (AP)—Scores of the sort you dream about at the alleys over Jones' Drug Store back home were plentiful last night at the opening of the 41st annual American Bowling Congress.

After Gov. Harold E. Stassen of Minnesota had rolled the first ball, 40 five-man teams stepped up to the specially installed alleys in the municipal auditorium and opened the 55 day tournament.

During the evening six teams bettered the 2,700 mark, meaning probable prize money. The Cedar Inn team of Milwaukee led the field with a total of 2,787.

MUSSOLINI ATTEMPTING TO REGAIN LOST PRESTIGE

Nazi Action In Balkans May Be Withheld While Fascists Make Supreme Effort To Carry Offensive In War With Greeks

By J. W. T. MASON
United Press War Expert

Reports of Mussolini's presence in Albania suggest that the Italians are taking preliminary action for a new major offensive against the Greeks to try to force peace on Athens by their own arms instead of having to call for active German intervention. It would improve Duce's position at home if he could gain a success in Albania without German help, and at the same time would relieve the Germans of their present embarrassing situation in southeastern Europe.

There have been several recent indications that Hitler wants to give Mussolini an opportunity to recover some of his lost domestic prestige by his own efforts. The reputation of the Axis would suffer if Germany were compelled to help Italy try to conquer a country as small as Greece.

The Fuehrer cannot wish this development to occur, nor can Duce desire to have the world witness his appealing for German assistance because his army is blocked in Albania. Every consideration of home morale and every wish to influence foreign public opinion must cause both the dictators to hope a joint movement against little Greece will not become necessary.

It may be expected that the Germans in Bulgaria will continue to refrain from moving against Greece until the Italians have tried their full hand in Albania or until Hitler becomes convinced that the Albanian campaign has reached a permanent deadlock. Even then it is uncertain that the Fuehrer will order an immediate offensive.

He may still hope that in the end the Greeks will recognize the impossibility of fighting on two fronts and will come to peace with Italy under pressure of the German threat. It is not unreasonable to believe that the Athens government already has been informed indirectly of a peace basis acceptable to the Axis.

Reports from Balkan capitals have intimated that Greece might be granted some Albanian territory in exchange for giving up part of the Aegean sea coast to Bulgaria. Such a settlement, however, would not be accepted by Italy without a confession of defeat.

If any part of Albania were to be formally transferred to Greece, it would mean Mussolini had lost the Greek war as he has lost the war in Africa. Nevertheless, if the Italians do try a general offensive in Albania and are unsuccessful, Hitler may conclude that a moderate penalty imposed on Italy would be less disadvantageous to the Axis than risking expansion of the war into southeastern Europe.

Statements from London that the British reinforcements have reached the middle east indicate Great Britain's intention of accepting the German challenge, in some form, if the Fuehrer carries the conflict southeastward. With Turkey and Russia in uneasy moods and Jugoslavia struggling against being forced to cooperate with the Axis, nobody can foresee the complications that might follow if a Balkan conflagration were started.

When Hitler stated recently that he would rather negotiate than to fight, he showed some understanding of the risks involved in the Balkans. That area of Europe always has been a perpetual danger zone for the great powers because of the rivalries engendered by its position as the gateway to the middle east. It still is and its warning signs are easy to read in Berlin.

NATIVE SONS' CONVENTION MAY 19-22

SAN FRANCISCO—National defense and a strengthened campaign against anti-American activities in the United States will occupy the attention of delegates to the sixty-fourth annual convention of the Native Sons of the Golden West when they meet May 19 to 22 at Lake Tahoe.

This announcement was made yesterday by Henry S. Lyon, grand president of the Native Sons, who, with other officials of the Order completed preliminary plans for the 1941 meeting.

Delegates to represent all parlor of the Native Sons at the Lake Tahoe session will be elected this month and resolutions will be prepared immediately following for presentation.

While Edward T. Schnarr of Oakland is scheduled to automatically succeed Lyon as Grand President of the order, it was revealed that keen competition is certain for the other important offices.

Several thousand members and guests of the Native Sons are expected to attend the annual convention and accordingly a full program of entertainment is now being arranged.

EL DORADO NEWS NOTES

Mrs. Hattie Cantrell was entertained at a birthday dinner in her home Saturday, March 8th by relatives including her sister, Mrs. May Bristol, of Sacramento; her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Harris; her grandson, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cantrell of Folsom, and her only great-granddaughter Nadyne Cantrell.

Due to Mrs. John Forn's sickness, the Premier Sewing Club met at the home of Mrs. Perschke. Those present included Mrs. Henry Fanning of Placerville, Mrs. L. Walker, Mrs. E. Harvey, Mrs. O. Thompson, Mrs. B. Cantrell, Mrs. J. De Costa, and Mrs. F. J. Bryan and the hostess, Mary Perschke. Lovely refreshments were served.

Mrs. J. Sullivan was taken to San Francisco, Letterman Hospital, on Tuesday, March 11, for observation. E. Harvey and Mr. Lawrence recently made a trip to Mono Lake on business.

LOTUS NOTES

On Thursday afternoon our Catholic lady friends, Mrs. W. A. Reckers, Mrs. Pearl Tinney, Mrs. A. J. Oreili and Miss Clair Tinney were in our town from Placerville selling tickets and getting donations from country residents for their St. Patrick's dance and supper on the night of March 15, and as usual called on the writer who bought a ticket and gave a donation as we have been doing every year for the past fifty years. Call and see us again, ladies,—you are always welcome.

We have been asked several times when the telephone line from Placerville to Lotus was built. Our records show that this line was put in by the Sunset Telephone Co. during the year 1910. The capital stock was $25.00 a share which was all subscribed for by the people of Lotus, Coloma, Gold Hill and Placerville after a few years the Sunset Company sold out their interest to the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company, and our line is now called the Placerville-Lotus Rural Telephone Company. This line was extended from Coloma to Lotus in 1911—thirty years ago.

All our whist card players do not want to forget to come to Coloma Saturday night and play at the game given by Gold Trail Grange. Nice prizes will be awarded, selected by Mrs. Florence Hines and Mrs. M. Stoltz who are on the committee. The affair will wind up with a buffet spread.

Edwin M. Weinand, wife and three sons came up from their home at San Bruno Friday evening and spent the weekend visiting with his mother, Mrs. Gertrude Maurer here. They returned home Sunday afternoon. Ed has been employed by one of the bay city's large breweries, driving one of their large trucks for some time past and much likes his job.

Clyde Thayer our ditch agent is getting ready to clean the ditch for the Ranch Ditch Co. and will start work with his crew of men during the coming week. This ditch is some twelve miles long and will take considerable time to clean it and get it in order for the summer's irrigation.

Hector Williamson, the contractor, and bridge builder, together with his wife were in our town on Saturday morning from Springvale attending to business matters.

The entertainment, dance and supper Saturday night given by Gold Trail Economic Club at Coloma drew a large crowd and in every way was a fine success. The play "A Good Girl in the Kitchen" was well carried out as all the ladies did their parts well, and deserve much credit. We are informed that after all expenses were paid the club will net some thirty five dollars. Your reporter was not present on the occasion as our chauffeur failed to come around and take us up. Pilot Hill, Cool and Garden Valley were well represented.

Archie Lawyer, John Wagner, of Pilot Hill, and Lawrence Niegel of Cool went down to Stockton Sunday and on their return home purchased some flood blood bulls. Geo. Luneman accompanied them as far as Folsom.

A. H. Peterson and wife of Oakland came up over the weekend to look after their property interests here and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Fox, Sr.

The Rebekah card party given by the ladies at their hall in Coloma last Tuesday night had a very good turnout—14 tables. Lotus was well represented.

And we must not forget to mention the card party given at Missouri Flat on Wednesday evening which drew a very nice crowd from far and near.

The weather the past week has been very fair with partly cloudy days. Sunday and Monday were mostly clear, the mercury hitting the 78 degree mark, the highest for 1941 to date.

Archie Lawyer and wife took advantage of the nice weather and drove down to Sacramento on Tuesday attending to business matters and sight-seeing the capital city.

Freeman Liddell and wife, Albert Herzig, Jr., and wife and two sons of Placerville, and Ray Rosenberger and wife and daughter of Coloma, were Sunday afternoon visitors with the ladies' father, George Pountain of Lotus. Albert and his wife also spent a short visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Herzig, Sr.

The March meeting of the Lotus, Coloma and Gold Hill Farm Center took place on Monday evening, Mar. 3. A very interesting talk was given by Dr. Jean Babcock, on "Food Values"—a short talk on poultry by Ivan Lalley and some slides on conservation completed a good program. After the various committee reports were made, coffee and delicious home-made cake was served.

Jim Keane and wife, of Sacramento were in Lotus on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Veerkamp and son Malcolm of Gold Hill were calling at the Reside home on Thursday evening as were Mr. and Mrs. H. Bacchi.

good bath and hot tea after a long walk in the rain."

Definitions of democracy are in the air. Ruth Bryan Rohde, daughter of William Jennings Bryan, who has been lecturing in California in one of her lectures told how a group of prominent people defined democracy on a radio program. Raymond Moley defined it as a form of government so planned that no small group can overthrow a majority's will. The churchman in the party said that democracy is a putting into effect the belief in the brotherhood of man; the poet asserted democracy is the only form of government about whose people a poet can make poems, men in totalitarian states are not subjects for songs. Mrs. Owen turned to Lincoln for her definition: "Democracy is government of the people and by the people conferring both benefits and responsibilities. It is something that cannot be seen with the eyes but must be seen with the mind and with the heart."

In a little book we urge you to read "The American Cause," by Mr. Archibald MacLeish, you will find an adequate definition of Democracy. To quote one part of the definition of Democracy, we choose the following sentence from the book: "Democracy is an affirmative

MRS. WILNA LARSON WINS FIRST HONORS IN CAKE CONTEST

Mrs. Wilna Larson, of Placerville, with a "pumpkin cake," won first honors in the Crisco cake baking contest in connection with the Happy Kitchen Cooking School, judges decided Friday.

The contest was sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary and following the judging the cakes were sold and the proceeds placed in the auxiliary's welfare fund.

When it came to second honors, the judges were puzzled by the fact that three cakes, on the basis of general judging, were tied for second honors.

It was then decided to judge second place on texture, and on this basis Mrs. Laura Albright's cake won. Judging for third place was on flavor, and Mrs. C. C. Collins' cake won. Fourth award was claimed by Mrs. Mary Wilkinson.

Awards in the contest were presented by this newspaper and were as follows: first, a cabinet of personalized stationery; second, 100 calling cards; third, subscription to The Mountain Democrat; and fourth, fifty calling cards.

faith, a faith in freedom for, not freedom from, a faith in the people's freedom to create their future for themselves."

FINAL ARRANGEMENTS MADE FOR LEGION-20-30 TOURNEY

Chairmen representing golfers for the local Legion post and 20-30 club reported today everything is in readiness for Sunday's tournament between the two organizations, with the first foursome scheduled to pull anchor at 8:30 a. m. The match is reported as the first of the season and will probably be followed by a tournament between the Legion and Lions next Sunday, with future meets with towns in neighboring counties, according to Ben Larson, tournament committee chairman.

Legionnaires announced their team would be composed of Bill Byrnes, Dr. L. B. Rantz, F. A. Peterson, M. E. Wright, Tom Chard, Roy Strum, Harry Jasper and Ben Larson. The 20-30 Club reported some uncertainties as to the final lineup of "Bobby Joneses" but named the following possibilities: B. J. "Whitie" Dellis, Kemper Jackson, Phil "Tope" Reeg, Buster Nicks, Bob Vivian, Dell Cheney, Elmer Butts, Don Veerkamp, Bob Patterson, Jack Thomsen, Bill Meyers, and a few others.

Ronard Cook reported this morning that the fairway and greens were in the best condition they have been in this year and that with slight exceptions the fairways have dried to the extent that no undesirable hazards exist.

Further activities of interest to the club and the golfing public will be discussed at a meeting Monday night at the courthouse, Larson announced. Scheduled for 7:30, the meeting, sponsored by the golf club, is to be open to all who play golf, think they can play golf or are interested in the game in any way.

AIR BATTLES HOLD STAGE AS SHOWDOWN NEARS IN BALKANS

By UNITED PRESS

Night air war between Britain and Germany neared record intensity today and events in the Balkans appeared to be moving toward a swift showdown.

The reports from both Berlin and London indicated that unprecedented numbers of night raiders were hurled into the combat by both sides.

Events in the Balkans indicated that the curtain might shortly go up there on a new major battle front.

Diplomatic sources in Belgrade heard that the British have landed 30,000 troops at Piraeus, the port of Athens. The United Press heard through private advices from abroad two days ago that a British expeditionary force had arrived in Greece.
